

Harry Carson

Topics

Leadership, Mind and Brain, Sports

Travels From

New Jersey

Bio

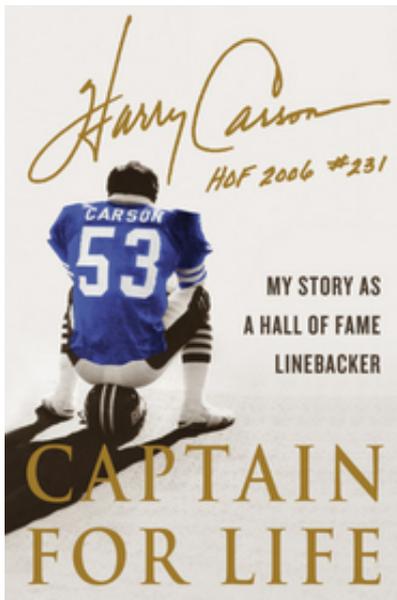

Harry Carson is a lecturer and motivational speaker to groups that range from juvenile and prison inmates to high school scholars, from college athletes to corporate executives and political leaders. Harry's 13-year stint with the New York Football Giants is one of the longest tenures in club history. The indestructible former linebacker served as Team Captain for 10 of his 13 seasons. Rated the #1 "Inside Linebacker" in NFL history according to Pro Football Weekly, Carson was named to the All-Rookie Team after his first NFL season. He once made an amazing 25 tackles in a Monday Night Football Game against the Green Bay Packers. Currently, Harry serves as Executive Director of the Fritz Pollard Alliance, an organization representing National Football League minority non-player personnel dedicated to creating greater racial diversity within the National Football League. He is President of Harry Carson Inc., a sports consulting and promotions company. HCI consults with media outlets, educational sources, and corporations on sports as well as non-sports related issues. Harry Carson Inc. provides expert television, radio, print media, and internet commentary on sports matters. He is affiliated with many organizations and involved with numerous charities. He has served as an Advisor to the Congress of Neurological Surgeons and is a member of the Brain Injury Association's Sports Injury Prevention Council. Former Governor Christine Whitman appointed Harry as a member of the New Jersey Advisory Council on Traumatic Brain Injury. He has established himself as an authority and internationally recognized speaker on Concussions in Sports. His two books, Point of Attack and Captain for Life, highlight his personal experiences with concussions and other injuries from playing the game of football.

SPEECHES

Captain for Life Harry will share his story about what it took for him to become one of the best middle linebackers to ever play the game—and the price he paid for giving the sport everything he had. As sufferer of post-concussion syndrome, Harry sheds light on the problems with pensions and benefits of retired players.

BOOKS

Hardcover

Captain for Life My Story as a Hall of Fame Linebacker

St. Martin's Press

One of the greatest linebackers to ever play professional football, Harry Carson built a reputation during his 13 years in the NFL as a fearsome, physical and passionate player who would give everything he had to win. Within these pages, Carson reveals the startling truth behind the sacrifices these great warriors make for our entertainment, the thrill of stepping onto a field with 80,000 fans screaming your name, and the debilitating physical and mental toll this violent and uncompromising game takes. With insight into some of the game's biggest stars, from Lawrence Taylor to Bill Parcells to Phil Simms this book is a must for any NFL fan.

REVIEWS: “The event went great! Harry was a huge hit and everyone really enjoyed his talk. Also, he is such a nice, friendly person- it was a pleasure working with him. Thank you for all your help!”

- Lindsey Whissel, Penn State University