Bio

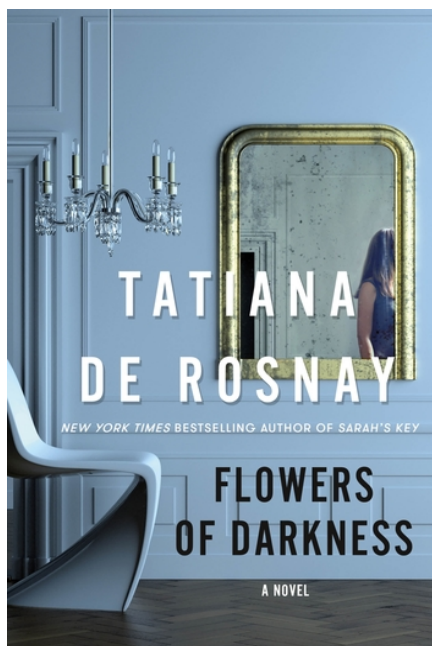

Tatiana de Rosnay is the author of the wildly popular novel Sarah's Key, the story of a Jewish girl born in Paris who endures the trials of the Holocaust, and a present-day journalist investigating the events. The novel was a massive New York Times bestseller, and has been published in 22 countries around the world. A film adaptation of the book was released in 2010. Tatiana's newest novel The Rain Watcher was released in October 2018. Her first novel in four years, Tatiana writes a heartbreaking and uplifting story of family secrets and devastating disaster, set against a Paris backdrop, fraught with revelations, and resolutions. Tatiana was born on September 28th, 1961 in the suburbs of Paris. She is of English, French and Russian descent. She was raised in Paris and then in Boston, when her father taught at MIT in the 70's. She moved to England in the early 80's and obtained a Bachelor's degree in English literature at the University of East Anglia, in Norwich. Returning to Paris in 1984, Tatiana became press attaché for Christie's and then Paris Editor for Vanity Fair magazine till 1993. Since 1992, Tatiana has published numerous novels in both French and English, Sarah's Key being her first novel written in English. Tatiana works as a journalist for French ELLE and is the literary critic for Psychologies Magazine and the Journal du Dimanche. She is married and has two children, Louis and Charlotte. She lives in Paris with her family.

Sarah's Key

St. Martin's Paperbacks

Paris, May 2002: On Vel' d'Hiv's 60th anniversary, journalist Julia Jarmond is asked to write an article about this black day in France's past. Through her contemporary investigation, she stumbles onto a trail of long-hidden family secrets that connect her to Sarah. Julia finds herself compelled to retrace the girl's ordeal, from that terrible term in the Vel d'Hiv', to the camps, and beyond. As she probes into Sarah's past, she begins to question her own place in France, and to reevaluate her marriage and her life.

A Paris Affair

St. Martin's Griffin

In this compulsively readable collection of short stories, Tatiana de Rosnay paints a portrait of forbidden loves in many shades - sometimes tragic, sometimes humorous, sometimes heartfelt, always with a dry wit and unflinching authenticity. A Paris Affair will take you on a vacation overseas, into the hidden lives of husbands, wives, boyfriends and girlfriends, where illicit desire wars with duty, and where a French take on romance will surprise you every time.

The Other Story

St. Martin's Press

Page-turning, layered and beautifully written, The Other Story is a reflection on identity, the process of being a writer and the repercussions of generations-old decisions as they echo into the present and shape the future.

Hardcover

A Secret Kept

St. Martin's Griffin

By turns thrilling, seductive and destructive, with a lingering effect that is bittersweet and redeeming, A Secret Kept is the story of a modern family, the invisible ties that hold it together, and the impact it has throughout life.
