Mar-a-Lago Inside the Gates of Power at Donald Trump's Presidential Palace

Flatiron Books

In addition to copious interviews and reporting from inside Mar-A-Lago, Laurence Leamer brings an acute and unparalleled understanding of the society of Palm Beach, where he has lived for twenty-five years. He has written an essential book for understanding Donald Trump's inner character.

The Price of Justice A True Story of Greed and Corruption

St. Martin's Griffin

The Price of Justice is a story of corporate corruption so far-reaching and devastating it could have been written a hundred years ago by Ida Tarbell or Lincoln Steffens. And as Laurence Leamer demonstrates in this captivating tale, because it's true, it's scarier than fiction.

REVIEWS: "A riveting account of the forces—good and bad—that produced a landmark Supreme Court case and two lawyers who made the system of justice work. This was one of the most moving talks I've heard in years."

- Ken Gormley, Dean and Professor of Law, Duquesne University School of Law, Presentation at Alleghany County Bar Association luncheon

"I thought this was an excellent and thought-provoking program. The subject was intriguing, captivating and supports the premise that our legal system has to be a properly and efficiently working system for providing effective and meaningful justice to serve its citizens."

- Frank G. Giunta, Demarest & Giunta, P.L.L.C., bar association presentation at Belo Mansion, Dallas

"Your talk was so well received here in Houston. I talked to a judge who attended your Inns of Court lunch function and was blown away."

- Kenneth Broughton ReedSmith LLP, Inns of Court luncheon, Houston
