Bio

Andrew Gross is the author of seventeen thrillers, nine NYT bestsellers, including five #1's co-written with the renowned James Patterson. Many of his works are about regular people, who, through a slight misstep or twist of fate, find themselves over their heads in forced way beyond their control. In recent years, he has made the shift from thrillers to historical thrillers fluidly. Andrew Gross showcases his multi-genre talent for storytelling in novels such as The One Man, based on family stories in the Holocaust. His latest novel, The Fifth Column, is an historical thriller from Minotaur Books. Andrew Gross has been shortlisted for top thriller awards, and his books have been sold into over 25 countries. He aims to tell gripping stories, of family or greed or desperation, ones in which ordinary people might step into the shoes of those things are happening to and ask themselves if they fit the role of a hero, and then root for one for a while.
